

VAPDC Executive Director Job Announcement

The Virginia Association of Planning District Commissions (VAPDC) is searching for the association's first Executive Director. VAPDC envisions an experienced leader who can serve the association in a part-time capacity (up to 20 hours per week) with the primary duty of serving as a single point of contact in representing the association with key state/federal agencies and partner organizations, along with leadership in coordination of statewide initiatives among the 21 members. The successful candidate must be available to attend meetings in Richmond, occasionally with short-notice, and will have access to office space in Richmond to support operations. Recently, the association underwent an assessment process which led to the establishment of this position. As a result, a full position description was developed by the association members and can be found at the link below. Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume and compensation requirements to Kevin Byrd, VAPDC Secretary/Treasurer, by email to kbyrd@nrvc.org prior to April 27th at 5:00pm.
